Chapter II

I. Role of Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer under this Code shall be the Compliance Officer of the Company and shall be responsible to administer the Code and monitor compliance with the Regulations.

The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors of the Company. In particular, the Compliance Officer shall provide all reports pertaining to the Policy, if any, to the Board of Directors or a Committee on a periodic basis.

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for implementation of this Policy. The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for and will have the authority to formulate such policies and procedures, and monitoring mechanism as necessary for adherence to the applicable SEBI PIT Regulations and other relevant guidelines by the Company. The Compliance Officer or the persons designated by him shall be responsible for implementation of this Policy including preservation of confidentiality of UPSI, maintaining Restricted List, pre-clearance of trades, monitoring trading activities of Employees and their Immediate Relatives and preparing and maintaining need based periodical reports.

Amendments to the Policy can be made only with the Board approval. In case of urgency, the Group Head - Compliance & Legal may amend this Policy with the approval of the Executive Chairman. Any amendment to the Policy shall be approved / ratified (as applicable) by the Board of Directors of the Company. For administrative purposes, the Compliance Officer may delegate any of his/her duties and responsibilities under the Policy to any person, as he/she deems appropriate.

Any exceptions to the Policy are to be approved only in case of emergency and with the approval from the Executive Chairman, and the Group Head - Compliance & Legal based on the recommendation of CEO of concerned LOB/Department.

The Compliance Officer shall once in a year provide a report to the Chairman of Board of Directors/ Audit Committee, as may be decided. The report shall contain violations observed under the SEBI PIT Regulations and exceptions sought by the Designated Person.

II. Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

Every employee shall maintain confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relating to an entity / securities in his/ her possession or to which he/she can have access to and shall not pass on or communicate, provide or allow access to any such information to any person, directly or indirectly, whether by way of making a recommendation for any Trading in Securities or in any other manner whatsoever.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Policy, no employee or Director shall use any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information for Trading in Securities, whether for Ambit or himself/herself or his/her Immediate Relatives or a Client or otherwise.

III. Need to Know:

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis. No Insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI, relating to an entity or securities listed or proposed to be listed, to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Further, no employee, director or his/her Immediate Relative shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of UPSI, relating to an entity or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The receipt of UPSI by any employee/Director should immediately be reported to the Compliance Department for consideration of restrictions as appropriate.

Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be deemed to be an “Insider”.

For the purpose of illustration, the term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of SEBI PIT Regulations.

No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

IV. Chinese Wall Policy and Wall Crossing Procedures:

(A) Segregation of Private Side and Public Side

- (i) To prevent misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, Company shall adopt a “Chinese Wall” policy, which separates those Departments of Ambit Group which have access to UPSI, considered “Private Side”, from other Departments of Ambit Group which are considered “Public Side”. ECM, CF and Structure Finance departments are considered “as Private Side” while all other departments would be considered as “Public Side”.
- (ii) Employees in the Private Side shall not communicate any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in the Public Side except on a need to know basis.
- (iii) Employees in the Private Side shall be physically segregated from Employees in the Public Side, thus ensuring that Employees not normally privy to confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information do not have access to this information.
- (iv) Separate recordkeeping facilities, network access and separate computer equipment shall be maintained for Private Side handling Unpublished Price Sensitive Information;
- (v) Employees of any of the Public Side shall not accompany Employees of the Private Side for negotiating or finalizing any transaction unless wall-crossing procedures are complied with. In the event that the Private Side requires the assistance or expertise of the Public Side personnel for the purpose of any mandate/potential mandate, it can be made available only after following the “Over the Wall procedure” laid down in the Policy, as amended from time to time.

(B) Procedure for Bringing “Over The Wall”

For business purposes, an Employee in a Public Side may be brought “Over The Wall” and given confidential information on a “Need to Know” basis after notifying Compliance Department the identity of the employee on the Public Side who is proposed to be brought over the Wall.

Employees who have been wall-crossed shall remain so until the information given to him/her is publically announced or the information has been determined to be stale. Once the Private Side informs Compliance that the information given to him/her has been publically announced or the information is stale, the Compliance team shall issue a cleansing notification to him/her informing that he/she is no longer deemed to be “Over The Wall” regarding the purpose for which he/she was wall-crossed.

V. Restricted List of Securities:

In order to monitor Chinese Wall procedures and prevent trading in Securities while in possession of UPSI, the Company shall restrict trading in Securities of listed entities or to be listed entities in respect of which any one or more Private Side of Ambit Group are in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and shall maintain separate lists of such Securities. Personal Trading by Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives shall be blocked or disallowed at the time of seeking pre-clearance in Securities mentioned in the Restricted List - Level I (“Grey List - Designated Persons and PI List”) and Restricted List - Level II (“Employees and PI Restriction”), as maintained under the Prevention of Insider Trading Policy of Ambit Group. Also, Eligible Employees and their Immediate Relatives shall be blocked or disallowed at the time of seeking pre-clearance in Securities mentioned in the Restricted List - Level II (“Employees and PI Restriction”), as maintained under the Prevention of Insider Trading Policy of Ambit Group

Restricted Lists shall be confidentially maintained and updated by the Compliance Department and circulated on need to know basis.

Chapter III – Employee Trading Policy

1. Pre-clearance of trades

All Employees as defined in this Policy shall obtain a pre-clearance from their Designated Manager as per the grid annexed to this Policy (Annexure 2) and Compliance for every trade in securities sought to be undertaken by them and their Immediate Relatives.

Pre-clearance is mandatory for the following types of securities:

- (a) Purchase/ Sale of Equity & Preference shares (including IPOs and FPOs);
- (b) Rights issue, Open offers, Buy-backs;
- (c) Off-market transfers including gift of securities;
- (d) Investment in Pvt. Equity, AIF, InvITs, REIT etc.;
- (e) Investment in American Depository Receipt and Global Depository Receipt;
- (f) Opening a Portfolio Management Services (PMS) account outside Ambit

In case of primary issuances of securities; pre-clearance has to be obtained prior to submission of the bid cum application form. Employees are not permitted to open Discretionary Portfolio Management Services (PMS) account outside of Ambit Group. Every new employee shall be provided 30 days to dispose/sell / close their DPMS accounts. Employees shall be permitted to subscribe for the Right Issue / Buy Back of the securities mentioned in the Restricted List, only to extent of their existing holdings / entitlements. Any trade without obtaining pre clearances would be considered as a violation of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, Ambit's Prevention of Insider Trading Policy and would be subject to action as necessary.

Pre clearance and Holding Period restriction are not applicable for dealing in following instruments:

- (a) Investments in Fixed Deposits with Banks/ Financial institutions/Companies, Life insurance policies, Provident funds or investments in saving schemes such as National Savings Certificates, National Savings Schemes, Kisan Vikas Patra or any other similar investment;
- (b) Sovereign Gold Bonds/ Government Bonds/ Tax saving bonds;
- (c) Mutual funds ;
- (d) Exchange-Traded Fund (ETF)
- (e) NCDs or similar products

2. Procedure for Pre-Clearance for Dealing in the Securities of other Issuers

An application shall be made by the Designated Person via the online PITP portal <https://pitp.ambit.co/> which will automatically be sent to their Designated Manager and the Compliance Department. In exceptional situations, an application can also be made through an email under guidance from Compliance.

No application for pre-clearance of trade in securities shall be made and no trade in securities shall be executed by the applicant and their immediate relative unless the same is in compliance with the following guidelines:

- (i) Applicant does not possess or have access to UPSI in respect of the entities / securities for which application for pre clearance is made

- (ii) After obtaining approval from Compliance but prior to execution of a trade if the Designated Person possesses or has access to unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI) relating to securities / entity then the employee shall forthwith refrain from executing any trade in such securities.
- (iii) If the proposed trade is not completed within the validity period, a fresh application for pre clearance should be made if the Designated Person still wishes to trade in that particular security.
- (iv) In case of sell trade, the Designated Person should ensure that they hold such security for at least 30 days at the time of making application on last-in-first-out (LIFO) basis i.e. from the last purchase or allotment date, whichever is later.

Pre-clearance from Compliance shall always be required subject to prior clearance from the Designated Manager and fulfillment of conditions mentioned aforesaid in (i) to (iv) in this Chapter by the applicant.

In relation to trades proposed to be undertaken by the Compliance Officer or his/her Immediate Relatives, Group Head - Compliance & Legal or Group Chief Operating Officer of Ambit Group shall be the approving authority.

Trading in Commodities, Futures & Options, short sales and forward trades is not permitted for all Employees and their Immediate Relatives

Pre-clearance approval is valid upto 3 (three) trading days from the receipt of approval. In case pre clearance is obtained post closure of market hours, the approval shall be valid for the next 4 (four) trading days.

3. Process of Pre-Clearance for Dealing in the Securities of the Company

Employees including their Immediate Relatives, who intend to trade in Securities of the Company, shall take a pre-clearance approval from the Compliance Officer of the Company.

The Pre-clearance approval is valid upto 3 (three) trading days from the receipt of approval. In case pre clearance is obtained post closure of market hours, the approval shall be valid for the next 4 (four) trading days.

4. Reporting Requirements for transactions in securities

4.1. Initial Disclosures

Any person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose their holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within 7 (seven) days of such appointment or becoming a promoter. (Refer Annexure 3 of the Policy)

4.2. Continual Disclosures

A promoter, member of the promoter group, designated person and director of the Company shall disclose to the company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within 2 (two) trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 1,000,000/- (Ten Lakh Rupees only). (Refer Annexure 4 of the Policy)

4.3. Disclosure by the Company

The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within 2 (two) trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

5. Contra Trade

The Designated Persons and their Immediate Relative, who buys or sells any number of securities cannot do an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. For this purpose of Compliance with this provision, we ensure that all the securities in the Grey List remain there for 6 months after the transaction is concluded.

6. Compulsory Trading from Ambit

Every new Employee shall be given 30 days' time to open a trading account with Ambit. Any personal trading/dealing in securities by the Employees and his/her Immediate Relative from the date of joining must be only through Ambit. All accounts held with Ambit (including PMS) are also required to be disclosed in the online PITP portal.

7. Additional Limitations

The Compliance Department may impose such additional limitations/conditions as may be necessary to effectively implement this Policy on Employee trading at any time such as statement of holdings and information in respect of securities held by them and/or their Immediate Relatives, or any other document(s) including Bank account statements, mobile bills etc. as the Compliance department shall consider appropriate, to verify that the procedures mentioned in this policy are being adhered to.

Chapter IV – Informant Mechanism - Protection against retaliation & victimization

SEBI has introduced the concept of an “Informant Mechanism” with an intention to curb the practice of insider trading and initiate action against any insider trading activities and ensure integrity of the securities markets.

Any employee can voluntarily submit any information relating to an alleged violation of this Policy which may have occurred or is occurring or has a reasonable belief that it is about to occur, to the Office of Informant Protection of SEBI, in the format and manner as set out in Schedule D to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019.

Based on this mechanism, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by the Board, such employees will be protected by Ambit, against any discharge, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, directly or indirectly or discrimination, irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI.

SEBI has further clarified that it would not be dealing with the complaints which are anonymous and not specific or substantiated or verifiable. Any complaint which has verifiable or substantiated facts, even if it is anonymous, will be considered by SEBI, for further necessary action.

Chapter V – Disclosures and Penalty

Every Designated Person shall submit the declarations and undertakings to Compliance, in the prescribed format, in the following cases:

1. At the time of joining Employees defined in this policy shall submit a Declaration of their broking / demat accounts/ Directorship/ Partnership etc. and all their holdings along with statements for themselves and Immediate Relatives on the online PITP portal.
2. Apart from the above, Designated persons shall also be required to disclose any “Material Financial Relationship” i.e. any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a Designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.
3. Employees shall also submit an Annual Declaration of their Broking and Demat Account along with the transaction statements as on March 31st by April 30th of each year.

All disclosures made under this Policy shall be maintained for a period of as may be required as per the applicable regulations.

The Compliance department can ask for any other disclosures from the Employees and their immediate relatives, as deemed necessary under this Policy.

Penalty for contravention of the Prevention of Insider Trading Policy

Every Employee shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Policy including to the extent the provisions hereof are applicable to his/her Immediate Relatives.

Every Employee who contravenes this Policy is liable to be penalized and appropriate action will be taken against such person by Ambit after giving reasonable opportunity to them to explain his/her stand in the matter. Such person shall also be subject to disciplinary action which may include warnings, wage freeze, dismissal, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in ESOPs, forfeiture of benefits, recovery, clawback, monetary fines, termination of employment, etc.

In case it is observed that there has been a material violation of SEBI PIT Regulations the same shall be informed to SEBI, as appropriate, based on the decision of the management and Group Head - Compliance & Legal.

Chapter VI – Review of Policy

The Audit Committee and/or Board of the Company shall review the compliance with the provisions of the PIT regulations and this policy at least once in a year financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.
